

Satellite Radio provides a service not found on am/fm formats. To restrict the content of these outlets flies in the face of free trade and freedom of choice. Surely there are more pressing needs to be addressed than to limit the choices of a fast-growing sector. There is no need to protect the interests of major corporations at the expense of your constituents.